CONTENTS OF VOLUME XXI

Number 1, January, 1962

Editorial. Arthur Weil, M.D., New York, N. Y. ..... 1

Circulation and Metabolism Following Experimental Cerebral Embolism. J. S. Meyer, M.D., F. Gotoh, M.D., and Y. Tazaki, M.D., Detroit, Michigan ..... 4

Histologic Study of the Encephalomyelitis Produced in Hamsters by a Neurotropic Strain of Measles. B. H. Waksman, M.D., T. Burnstein, M.D., and R. D. Adams, M.D., Boston, Mass. ..... 25

Intracranial Cerebellar Meningo-Encephalocele (Posterior Fossa Cyst) Causing Hydrocephalus by Compression at the Incisura Tentorii. E. C. Alvord, Jr., M.D., and P. M. Marcuse, M.D., Houston, Texas ..... 50

Unusual Response of the Inferior Olive to Gliomas. H. M. Hauser, M.D., and J. W. Kernohan, M.D., Rochester, Minnesota ..... 70

Tuberous Sclerosis Complex: Report of Case in an Eighteen-Month-Old Child. A. N. D'Agostino, M.D., and J. W. Kernohan, M.D., Rochester, Minnesota ..... 79

Clinicopathologic Significance of Granulovacuolar Degeneration in Alzheimer's Disease. J. S. Woodard, M.D., Camarillo, California ..... 85

Hypertrophy of the Inferior Olives in the Cat. W. J. C Verhaart, M.D., and J. Voogd, Leiden, Holland ..... 92

An Electron Microscope Study of Degenerative Changes in Human Cutaneous Nerve. J. B. Finean, D.Sc., and A. L. Woolf, M.D., Birmingham, England ..... 105

Histochemical Observations on Oxidative Enzyme Activity of Glial Cells in a Local Brain Injury. L. J. Rubinstein, M.D., I. Klatzo, M.D., and J. Miquel, Ph.D., Bethesda, Maryland ..... 116

The Activity of Succinic Dehydrogenase in Glial Tumors. M. J. Mossakowski, M.D., Warsaw, Poland ..... 137

A Modification of Hortega's Silver Impregnation Method to Assist in the Identification of Astrocytes with Electron Microscopy. F. S. Vogel, M.D., and L. Kemper, New York, N. Y. ..... 147

Ultrastructural Observations on Phagocytosis of Bacteria in Experimental (E. Coli) Meningitis. E. Nelson, M.D., K. Blinzinger, M.D., and H. Hager, M.D., Minneapolis, Minnesota ..... 155

Book Reviews ..... 170

Number 2, April, 1962

Presidential Address. The Ataxic Form of Polyradiculoneuritis (Landry-Guillain-Barre Syndrome). Clinical and Pathological Observations. Richard B. Richter, M.D., Chicago, Ill. ..... 171

Ganglioglioma: A Case With Long History and Malignant Evolution. Dorothy S. Russell, M.D., and Lucien J. Rubinstein, M.D., London, England ..... 185

Intramedullary Neurilemmoma (Neurinoma) of the Thoracic Cord. A Case Report. Michael Scott, M.D., and Ralph Bentz, M.D., Philadelphia, Pa. ..... 194

Human Toxocara Canis Encephalitis With Lead Encephalopathy. Matthew T. Moore, M.D., Philadelphia, Pa. ..... 201

Neuropathologic Investigations of the X-Irradiated Embryo Rat Brain. Leon Roizin, M.D., Roberts Rugh, Ph.D., and M. A. Kaufman, M.D., New York, N. Y. ..... 219

Heterotopic Cerebral Gray Matter as an Epileptogenic Focus. Donald D. Layton, M.D., Chicago, Ill. ..... 244

The Ultrastructure of the Choroid Plexus in Hydrocephalic Offspring from Vitamin A Deficient Rabbits. Everet W. Witzel, M.S., and Guy M. Hunt, M.D., Loma Linda, California ..... 250

Acid Phosphatase in the Nervous System. I. Evaluation of the Hexazonium Pararosanilin Method. II. The Histochemical Localization With Hexazonium Pararosanilin. PAUL J. ANDERSON, M.D., and SUN K. SONG, M.D., New York, N. Y. . . 263
Histochemistry of the Cerebral Cortex From a Case of Amaurotic Family Idiocy. WILLIAM M. SHANKLIN, PH.D., MARIETTA ISSIDORIDES, PH.D., and MARIA SALAM, M.D., Beirut, Lebanon . . . . . 284
Comparison of Cerebral Lesions Experimentally Produced in Cats by Injections of Alcohol and of Etopalin Paste. KAMAL GHAEMI, M.D., and WALLACE B. HAMBY, M.D., Buffalo, N. Y. . . . . 294
American Association of Neuropathologists, Annual Meeting, Atlantic City, N. J. . . . 299
Obituary. Knud H. Krabbe. ERNA CHRISTENSEN, M.D., Copenhagen, Denmark . . . . 331
Book Reviews . . . . . 332

NUMBER 3, JULY, 1962

Fine Structure of the Myasthenic Neuromuscular Junction. S. I. ZACKS, M.D., W. C. BAUER, Capt. Med. C., and J. M. BLUMBERG, Colonel, M.C., Washington, D. C. . . . . 335
Comparative Histologic Changes at Myoneural Junctions, Terminal Axons, Spindles and Tendon Organs of Muscle after Local Cold Injury. ANN SAYEN, Philadelphia, Pa. . . . . 348
Symmetrical Calcification of the Brain With Predominance in the Basal Ganglia and Cerebellum. Z. KALAMBOUKIS, M.D., and PETER MOLLING, M.D., Norwich, Conn. 364
Symmetrical Thalamic Degeneration in Infants. R. K. ROSALES, M.D., and H. E. RIGGS, M.D., Philadelphia, Pa. . . . . 372
Human Lateral Geniculate Body in Normal Development and Congenital Unilateral Anophthalmia. N. MOSKOWITZ, PH.D., and CH.R. NOBACK, PH.D., New York, N. Y. . . . . 377
A Cancer Arising in a Dermoid of the Brain. A Case Report. A. GLUSZCZ, M.D, Lodz, Poland . . . . . 383
Sarcoma of the Brain. A Study of Two Cases in Children and Experimental Production of Similar Tumors in Chick Brain. R. SIEGLER, M.D., Philadelphia, Pa., and R. J. PIENTA, PH.D., New Brunswick, N. J. . . . . 388
Cytological Method for the Diagnosis of Tumors Affecting the Central Nervous System. J. A. JANE, M.D., and G. BERTRAND, M.D., Montreal, Canada . . . . . 400
Nerve Cell Destruction by Asphyxiation of the Spinal Cord. A. VAN HARREVELD, M.D., and J. P. SCHADÉ, M.D., Pasadena, California . . . . . 410
Cerebral Uptake of Tritiated Tetracycline From Blood and Cerebrospinal Fluid Under Normal Conditions and in Experimental Meningitis. L. BAKAY, M.D., Buffalo, N. Y. . . . . 424
Thiocyanate Space of Rat Brain in Experimental Cerebral Edema. E. STREICHER, M.D., Bethesda, Md. . . . . 437
Concentric Hyaline Inclusion Body Formation in Mental Disease. Analysis of Seven Cases. J. S. WOODARD, M.D., Camarillo, Calif. . . . . 442
Effects of Posterior and Anterior Hypothalamus Lesions on the Maintenance of Body Temperature in the Rat. N. PACHAMOV, M.B., Dunedin, N. Z. . . . . 450
Encephalogenic Properties of Bovine Central Nervous Tissue Fractions. R. E. OLSON, M.D., M. KLAY, B.SC., R. A. GOOD, M.D., and R. M. CONDIE, B. S., Minneapolis, Minn. . . . . 461
Cytochemistry of Normal and Reactive Astrocytes. R. L. FRIEDE, M.D., Ann Arbor, Mich. . . . . 471
Histochemical Study of Oxidative Enzymes in Myelinating Cultures of Central and Peripheral Nervous Tissue. T. YONEZAWA, M.D., M. B. BORNSTEIN, M.D., E. R. PETERSON, M.A., and M. R. MURRAY, PH.D., New York, N. Y. . . . . 479
Book Reviews . . . . . 488

NUMBER 4, OCTOBER, 1962

Infectious Leucoencephalitis. A Critical Comparison of Certain Experimental and Naturally-Occurring Viral Leucoencephalitides with Experimental Allergic Encephalomyelitis. B. H. WAKSMAN, M.D., and R. D. ADAMS, M.D., Boston, Mass. 491

Occult Endemic Encephalitozoönosis of the Central Nervous System of Mice (Swiss-Bogg-O'Grady Strain). J. R. M. INNES, Sc.D., W. ZEMAN, M.D., J. K. FRENKEL, M.D., and G. BORNER, Upton, N. Y. 519

Schwann Cell Alterations in Metachromatic Leukodystrophy. Preliminary Phase and Electron Microscopic Observations. H. DEF. WEBSTER, M.D., Boston, Mass. 534

Brain Stem Gliomas Causing Hydrocephalus in Twins With von Recklinghausen's Disease. WILLIAM J. BRADY, M.D., Portland, Oregon 555

Encapsulated Glioma of the Sylvian Fissure Associated with Neurofibromatosis. Report of a Case with Histopathological Comparison of Surgical Lesion and Autopsy Specimen Following Recurrence. PATRICK E. TAYLOR, M.D., Gainesville, Fla. 566

Experimental Cerebral Edema Produced by Focal Freezing. I. An Anatomic Study Utilizing Vital Dye Techniques. R. A. CLASEN, M.D., P. M. COOKE, M.D., S. PANDOLFI, D. BOYD, and A. J. RAIMONDI, M.D., Chicago, Ill. 579

Incorporation of Thymidine-$H^3$ by Cells in Normal and Injured Mouse Spinal Cord. E. K. ADRIAN, JR., M.A., and B. E. WALKER, PH.D., Galveston, Texas 597

Localization of Ferritin-Labelled Botulinus Toxin in the Neuromuscular Junction of the Mouse. S. I. ZACKS, M.D., J. F. METZGER, Major, M.C., G. W. SMITH, Major, M.C., and J. M. BLUMBERG, Col., M.C., Washington, D. C. 610

Metabolic Relations Between the Neurons of the Optic Pathway in Various Functional Conditions. G. GOMIRATO, M.D., Siena, Italy, and G. BAGGIO, Torino, Italy 634

A Quantitative Study of Myelination in Hydrocephalus (Factors Controlling Glial Proliferation). R. L. FRIEDE, M.D., Ann Arbor, Mich. 645

The Neuropathology of "Reeler". A Neuro-Muscular Mutation in Mice. H. MEIER, PH.D., and W. G. HOAG, D.V.M., Bar Harbor, Maine 649

The Effect of Sciatic Nerve Section on Histochemical Reactions of Sensory End Organs. R. K. WINKELMANN, M.D., Rochester, Minn. 655

Book Reviews 658
